

SASRI wins at the 2018 SASTA Congress

KYNOCH AWARD: Sanesh Ramburan

Dr Sanesh Ramburan was awarded the prestigious Kynoch Award for his paper, "Post-release variety testing: A key activity to ensure commercial value of genetic improvements". This is a highly respected award in the agricultural section of the conference and is awarded to the best paper.

Left to right: Sanesh Ramburan and Sumita Ramgareeb (SASRI Resource Manager and SASTA Committee Chair)

POSTER AWARD: AGRICULTURE: Peter Twedde

This year's best poster award was given to Dr Peter Twedde for his poster titled, "Estimating traffic induced sugarcane losses for various infield cane extraction systems". He co-authored this poster with Prof PW Lyne.

Left to right: Sumita Ramgareeb (SASRI Resource Manager and SASTA Committee Chair) and Peter Twedde

JUBILEE AWARD: Neil Miles

The highly-esteemed Agricultural Jubilee Award was given to Dr Neil Miles for his paper, "Prediction of soil nitrogen mineralization to crop fertiliser nitrogen requirements". The prize includes a trip to the 2019 ISSCT Congress in Argentina. This award is given to an exceptional author's paper/poster contribution at the SASTA Congress in the year preceding each ISSCT Congress. Neil's co-author were Mrs R Rhodes and Dr A Weigel.

Left to right: Sumita Ramgareeb (SASRI Resource Manager and SASTA Committee Chair) and Neil Miles.

 Kerisha Raghunandan
(SASRI Publications Officer)