BIOSECURITY ALERT!

The Longhorn Beetle poses a real threat to sugarcane in South Africa. Your assistance is requested to look out for this pest as illustrated below.

Stressed cane

Larva in cane stubble

Larva in base of stalk

Larva in stalk

Life stages

South African Sugarcane Research Institute Email: biosecurity@sugar.org.za damage or larvae, please inform your local Extension Specialist or Biosecurity Officer

Tel: +27-31 508 7459 / 7544

May 2017